

CLOSE JANICE'S MOUTH

Janice is your only relative that complains about your cooking. Never fear, we'll hush her up for good. First, take a big ol' pot of Jimmie crabs and boil them in water. Add lots and lots of Old Bay Seasoning. Next clean, crack, and pull that tender crab meat out with your fork. Here comes the most crucial part: Seat Janice at the table. Put the warm, freshly buttered crab in front of Janice, and while she's distracted—put a bag over her head. Now it's just a short drive to the pier for Janice and boom-shakalaka, the only voice you have to listen to at the dinner table is that crab meat in your mouth. Mmm-mmm—Old Bay. Let flavor speak.
